

INDIANAPOLIS CANCER GUILD, INC.

Application for Judy Christofolis Cancer Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 2020 in memory Judy Christofolis, a strong and compassionate community leader, successful business owner, devoted volunteer and founding member of the Indianapolis Cancer Guild, Inc. This scholarship is available to a college-bound high-school senior who currently has or has experienced cancer personally or has a parent or sibling who currently has or has had cancer.

- Applicants must be graduating high-school seniors who will attend an accredited Indiana college or university as a full-time or part-time student.
- Candidate must have experienced cancer themselves or through immediate family member (either parent or a sibling).
- Candidate must reside in Marion County or one of the contiguous counties - Hamilton, Boone, Hendricks, Morgan, Johnson, Shelby, or Hancock.
- Candidate must show academic achievement with a GPA of 3.0 or above. Transcript required with application. Also share school involvement, extracurricular and volunteer activities.
- Submit a one-page essay or statement of circumstance.
- Submit a letter of recommendation from a Guidance Counselor, teacher, employer, or minister.
- As part of the selection process, final candidates may be invited to meet briefly with members of the Scholarship Committee during the week of April 17th via zoom. Final scholarship recipients will be notified by Wednesday, April 19, 2023.
- Application deadline is Thursday April 6, 2023 at midnight. Late/incomplete applications will not be considered.
